MEMORANDUM FOR

Region/Brigade/Battalion Commanders, U.S. Army Cadet Command
Directors/Special Staff, U.S. Army Cadet Command

SUBJECT: Camp Completion Criteria - Minimum Score for Advanced Camp Credit

1. References:

a. Cadet Command Regulation 145-3, Precommissioning Training and Leadership Development, para 7-3.a., 29 Oct 98.

b. How to Fight Manual, Change 1, para 4.a.5., 11 Mar 99.

2. Cadets will be required to earn a minimum of 770 Cadet Evaluation System (CES) points in order to receive camp credit without waiver at the 2000 ROTC Advanced Camp.

3. The CES modification following the 1998 Advanced Camp changed leadership ratings from O/E/S/N equaling 100/85/70/55 percent to E/S/N equaling 100/80/60 percent. This coupled with changes in APFT scoring standards and changes in Land Navigation scoring policy resulted in increases in cadets' scores at the 1999 Advanced Camp. For "Satisfactory" level of performance at the 1998 Advanced Camp, a cadet earned 690 points; in 1999, the same cadet earned 775 points.

4. Camp completion criteria at the 1999 ROTC Advanced Camp required cadets to earn a minimum of 700 CES points. Since the CES score earned by a cadet demonstrating "Satisfactory" level of performance in all events is 775 points, it was possible for a cadet with less than satisfactory performance to receive camp credit. At 770 points, cadets will have demonstrated a marginal level of performance, failing at least one event. Each cadet earning less than 770 points will be referred to a performance board. The performance board will make a recommendation to the Camp Commander on the disposition of the individual case.
Further, the Director of Training will provide the command with an update to the CES for implementation in SY 00-01. This update will reestablish the "Satisfactory" level of performance at 70 percent in both Advanced Camp and on-campus CES scoring.

5. Cadets expect and deserve to be challenged. Cadre will ensure that each cadet is encouraged to perform to their full potential by clearly establishing and strictly enforcing standards. Expect each and every cadet to achieve established standards of performance prior to being commissioned as an Army lieutenant.

6. POC, this action, is LTC Armbrister, DSN 680-4580 or (757) 727-4580.
